

San Diego - Calif, January 10, 1930

On or about the 7th day of January, 1931, the premises at 932 Fifth Avenue in the city of San Diego, were occupied and are still occupied by a concession exhibiting embalmed specimens of Sea Animals. The said exhibits are offensive to the sense of smell and because of the nauseating, offensive and disturbing odors emanating from the said exhibits, business in the adjacent neighborhood to 932 Fifth Avenue has been diminished and that there now exists a foul aroma, caused by the said exhibit, over the said adjacent district. It is of the opinion of the undersigned that the disturbing odor caused by the said exhibit is a public nuisance and your petitioners respectfully pray that the license of the said exhibit be ~~reversed~~ immediately.
