To the city council.

Gentlemen, I notice by the paper that the dog question is still very much in the foreground, I thought perhaps one more suggestion would do no harm, In my neighborhood there are dogs and dogs and ~~dogs~~ more dogs, just running the streets, I like a dog, and when I was a boy, living on a farm I had a dog, but there was plenty of room for both of us, we did not bother our next door neighbour.

Here is my suggestion, any family that insists on allowing their dog to run at large must appoint one or more members of the family to go out every morning with a dustpan

or fire shovel and clean off the lawns in the neighborhood.

Penalty - on second complaint
of not doing their duty, positive loss of dog.

P.S. I have lived here for a good many years and I am getting tired cleaning up after other peoples dogs.
