

January 20, 1945

Dear Sir;

I am writing in a complaint on the new ordinance against letting dogs run the streets. If any particular dog is vicious, all that has to be done is a complaint made against that dog.

My husband is overseas in the Merchant Marine and he would be heart broken if he came back to find I had to get rid of his dog. I have no yard to keep her in, and she can't stay in the house. She has been sprayed, and plays with all the children in the neighborhood.

Sincerely

Mrs. Wm. E. Sayles
